

AI Insight Privacy Policy

We respect your privacy and value the trust you place in us when you share your personal and company information (“Information”). The way we may use your Information is discussed in this privacy policy.

General disclosure and information sharing policies of specific content from the AI Insight platform located at <http://www.aiInsight.com> are outlined within this Privacy Policy document. Customizable disclosure elections can be made throughout the administrative login account and within the Edit Profile tab for financial advisors and Profile & Summary/Associate Profile for sponsor associates.

What information do we collect?

The information we may collect includes, but is not limited to:

- name and job title;
- contact information including email address;
- CRD/IARD number, licenses and designation identification number(s) to facilitate filing of continuing education (CE) credits, where applicable;
- demographic information such as ZIP code™, preferences, interests and/or type of services and strategies provided to clients;
- historic industry experience and
- program and sponsor information
- any other information provided directly by a subscribing firm and/or their firm associates.

What we do with the information we gather.

We use the information provided to us to facilitate consolidated reporting for each subscribing firm, submitting earned CE credits to the applicable CE Credit Association and encouraging greater efficiencies in communication and support between Broker Dealer and Sponsor subscribing firms.

We may also use this information for the following purposes:

- Internal record keeping;
- To license program and sponsor information to third parties in the securities industry who provide support services to our subscribers and the securities industry generally;
- To provide data to third parties on an anonymous basis to support industry education and research;
- Subscriber communications periodically sent regarding informational updates such as new enhancements, regulatory updates, training opportunities and new subscribers; and
- Sales support purposes in accordance with subscriber firm and individual disclosure elections controlled within each individual AI Insight account.

- Subscribers may opt out of receiving updates and/or notifications by updating their profile page and/or selecting "unsubscribe" link on the AI Insight Newsletter email;

AI Insight is not responsible for the privacy policies of any third parties to whom any Information is provided pursuant hereto.

Controlling your personal contact information

Sharing of personal contact information provided by each user of the system can be limited directly by the individual user through their individual account or by the supervising firm through the firm's Administrative account within AI Insight.

Third party website links

Our website may contain links to other websites of related interest. We do not have any control over the security or content of any website other than our own. Therefore, we are not responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide while visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and review the privacy statement applicable to the respective website(s).

Personal Profiles

Each subscriber has the option of creating personal profiles for individual users associated with that subscriber. Each individual personal profile contains personal information about that individual such as name, address, job title, contact information, and professional credentials. Each subscriber may use its administrative profile to control access to the personal profiles of the individuals associated with it. If a subscriber authorizes other subscribers to access its associated personal profiles, then AI Insight will allow such access. A subscriber may elect to allow an individual user to decide whether to authorize access to that user's personal profile by other subscribers, in which case AI Insight will allow other subscribers to access that individual's profile only if so authorized by the individual. A subscriber does not have the option of allowing any other party to access its associated personal profiles through AI Insight unless that other party is also a current AI Insight subscriber. Additionally, AI Insight maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards intended to secure such personal information. Each subscriber covenants that it will not take any action described in this paragraph relating to individual users (e.g., creating a personal profile or permitting other subscribers to access an individual's personal profile), without being duly authorized by such individual to do so.

Cookies

Like many online enterprises, we use cookies on our site. Cookies are small files that a site or its service provider transfers to a visitor's computer hard drive through the Web browser (if allowed) that enables the site's or service provider's systems to recognize the browser and capture and remember certain information. For instance, we may use cookies to help us recognize and/or authenticate visitors, save user preferences based on previous or current site activity, compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interaction and offer better site experiences and tools in the future

Your consent

By using this site you consent to our privacy policy and reaffirm, if applicable, your consent to the AI Insight terms of use contained in the applicable AI Insight Subscription Agreement. Whenever you submit information via this site, you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of that information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

You understand, that all information in any personal profiles or otherwise disclosed to AI Insight may be disclosed to employees and contractors of AI Insight who need to access this information for purposes of providing administrative or technical services for AI Insight. Any such contractor will be subject to an agreement prohibiting disclosure of such information to third parties. AI Insight will not allow any other non-subscriber to access such personal profiles.

You understand that we may be also required to disclose your personal information but only if required to do so in order to comply with any valid legal process or governmental request (to include, not by way of limitation, in response to a search warrant, subpoena, statute, or court order), or as otherwise provided in the terms of use contained in the applicable AI Insight Subscription Agreement and this Privacy Policy.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

AI Insight may change this policy from time to time by updating this page and will communicate any changes to current subscribers via email to their current email address on file with AI Insight.
