

Simplify your alts investing experience.

AIX makes it easier for sponsors to raise assets and increase product allocation.

AIX and AI Insight have partnered together to offer sponsors an unprecedented edge for distributing alternative investments.

AIX's enterprise technology platform is designed to support all of your alternative investment business needs.

Products

Create an all-digital experience for buying, owning and selling your alternative investment offerings.

AIX supports all alternative investment vehicles and product structures.

Experience

Deliver an intuitive, streamlined experience for investors with live forms that incorporate your legal, compliance and operational requirements all in real time.

AIX builds your subscription requirements into a TurboTax®-like experience that includes dynamic rules, data pre-population and your eSign policies.

Process

Enable true straight through processing with dynamic workflows that support the transmission of subscription data across wealth managers, custodians, fund admins and transfer agents.

AIX translates data captured during the investing process and transmits the information according to your preferences - API, AIP, SFTP, etc.

Partners

Achieve the most comprehensive, seamless alts investing process with a real-time AI Insight verification, and all of the proprietary forms of your broker dealer and custodian partners factored into a single experience.

AIX has the most robust network of intermediaries and direct data connectivity with fund admins and TAs in the industry.
