

Introduction to Al Insight

Let Al Insight help you expand your business in today's regulatory-centric environment

Company Overview

Founded in 2005, AI Insight Inc. is a leader in alternative investment research, education and compliance documentation. Financial firms and advisors can research the individual investment offerings from AI Insight's universe of programs to train, track compliance activity, access marketing support and monitor ongoing performance—all via a customizable, dedicated platform.

Al Insight also helps alternative investment managers elevate their visibility in the industry, increase program accessibility and promote transparency.

Al Insight is an easy-to-use, web-based tool that gives broker dealers, RIAs and financial advisors access to hundreds of Alternative Investment programs. It also serves as a documented protocol to meet FINRA compliance requirements associated with Alternative Investments.

Al Insight offers a convenient way for broker dealers, RIAs, financial advisors, alternative investment managers and sales representatives to connect. We're currently working with about 150 broker dealers and RIAs representing about 60,000 advisors. We're also working with more than 120 alternative investment managers whose investments are included on the platform.
